

Student Need Increases in 13 of 16 Franklin County School Districts from School Year 2009-2010 to School Year 2014-2015

*Represents Columbus City Schools' total district-wide low-income percentage. Source: Ohio Department of Education CCIP reports, Columbus City School District (043802) - Franklin County - 2016 - Consolidated - Rev 3 - Title I-A Improving Basic Programs, Low Income Eligibility. Downloaded, March 7, 2016. All other district percentages represent economic disadvantage. Source: Ohio Department of Education, Advanced Reports, Downloaded March 7, 2016. Calculations by KidsOhio.org.

The percentage of students who were economically disadvantaged increased in 13 of 16 Franklin County school districts from school year 2009-2010 to 2014-2015. Six districts had rates over 50 percent: Columbus, Groveport Madison, Hamilton, South-Western, Whitehall, Reynoldsburg. The Groveport Madison school district experienced the greatest increase in economic disadvantage among its student body, 14 percentage points. Whitehall experienced the greatest decrease in economic disadvantage, 17 percentage points.